CASHCOW.NL CROSS MEDIA

As the magazine cashcow.nl is filled with tips, research and background information, our website and digital newsletter go beyond that with more up-to-date information. This means you can find more news on stock exchanges, investment funds, personal finance, real estate, asset management and advice on asset management. Next to our website we have a daily digital newsletter that is send out personalized to 15.000 subscribers every day. The E-Cash (pdf-magazine) will be published in parts before the print magazine appears. The articles will contain video-content and readers can click directly to the website for more information.

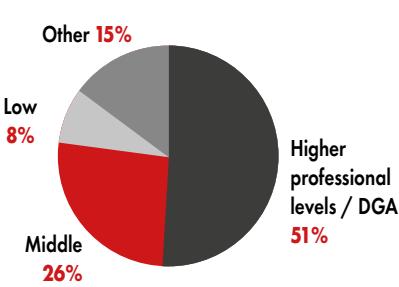

TARGET AUDIENCE

It seems that many of our website visitors and newsletter subscribers read our cashcow.nl magazine as well, so therefore the target audience is more or less the same as the once we reach with our magazine. Which enables the advertiser to target a very specific audience: highly educated males and females with good careers, above average income and house owners. Visitors to our website and subscribers to our newsletter also have a long term investment horizon. Our readers are interested in investment funds, asset management, real estate (funds), online brokerage, fiscal investment opportunities and other investment opportunities. Our audience is specifically interested in new investment opportunities.
